

Psychology A level Curriculum

	Autumn Term	Spring Term	Summer Term
Y12	Psychological themes through core studies Component 2 Key Theme - Responses to people in authority, classical study &amp; contemporary study, cognitive area, memory, developmental area, external influences on children's behaviour Psychological Research Methods Component 1 How to conduct experiments, observation, correlation, experimental designs, variables and how they are operationalised	Psychological Research Methods Component 1 Planning and conducting practical activities raw data, levels and types of data descriptive statistics &amp; inferential statistics, methodological issues, reporting writing, how science works Psychological themes through core studies Component 2 biological area, regions of the brain, individual differences area understanding disorder	Year 12 Mock exams Psychological themes through core studies Component 2 Social responses to people in need development, moral development cognitive, attention biological, brain plasticity
Y13	Psychological themes through core studies Component 2 Individual differences, measuring differences Applied Psychology Component 3 Mental health, defining abnormality, characteristics of 3 types of mental disorder, medical model and alternatives, behaviourist &amp; psychodynamic, cbt, humanistic view Forensic psychology - what makes a criminal? physiological &amp; non physiological explanations, the collection &amp; processing of forensic evidence	Applied Psychology Component 3 Forensic Psychology Cognitive interview, jury decision making, crime prevention sport &amp; exercise, biological, arousal &amp; anxiety, exercise &amp; mental health, cognitive, imagery theories of personality &amp; measuring personality, social, teams, leadership, coaching audience effects	Psychology Mock Exams Revision and Recap